Lornham Instructed To Manage Henry Moore Court, SW3

Lornham has been appointed to manage Henry Moore Court, a prestigious new build development in the heart of Chelsea. This landmark development on the Kings Road was developed by Dartmouth Capital and comprises 17 luxury residential units with all the amenities one can expect in a high end development.

Rupert Wertheimer, Lornham's Head of Property Management comments:

"Our highly professional approach combined with the experience of managing property of similar calibre has given the block's Directors the confidence to instruct Lornham for this sought after mandate. In the last 3 years we have taken a proactive approach to working with developers and recent new built developments. The high levels of technology and automation in these leading developments requires a deep level of understanding to ensure efficient property management. Our experienced team ensures that residents have peace of mind that their property is being well managed at all times."

Lornham currently manages over £375m of property in Central London. The personal approach combined with longstanding industry experience is proving to be a winning combination for residents.
