

Lornham Instructed To Manage Holyrood Court, NW1

Lornham have been appointed as the managing agent for this residential building in Regents Park. Holyrood Court is a modern development which comprises 14 units with 9 apartments and 5 townhouses. It is situated within a gated development on the edge of Regents Park with a 24 hour porter.

Rupert Wertheimer, Lornham's Director of Property Management comments:

'We have been working with the representative of one of the owners for some time and were asked to take on this building as they liked our fresh approach to block management. Our portfolio of modern buildings combined with our experienced team demonstrates that we have the capability and resources to manage this building to the benefit of the owners'

Lornham manage a substantial portfolio of buildings in Central London and if you would like to hear more about our block management then please contact Rupert Wertheimer
