RUPERT WERTHEIMER PRESENTS AT THE INTELLIGENCE FORUMS

Tuesday, September 19th, was a remarkable evening as Rupert took the stage at the prestigious Intelligence Forums organised by Harry Corbett and the Intelligence Forums team, hosted by Shoosmiths.

Rupert shared some of the complex challenges faced by managing agents in our industry today, and later on delved deeper into the future prospects for the industry, exploring innovative solutions and strategies to improve client experiences.

It was a great evening connecting with industry professionals and introducing our newest team member, Matt McCracken, to the event. We would like to express our gratitude to Intelligence Forums, Shoosmiths, and, of course, our valued clients and partners who continue to support us on this journey.

Stay tuned for more updates and insights from Lornham as we lead the way in block management expertise.
