

HANS PLACE, N1

Block Management

Introducing Hans Place, the latest instruction for the block management team situated in Knightsbridge, SW1.

Taking inspiration from the Place Vendôme in Paris, the square features buildings that have maintained their original external aesthetics despite updates.

Crafted by Henry Holland and named after Sir Hans Sloane, a notable physician and collector renowned for his contribution to the British Museum, this addition is a splendid inclusion imbued with a deep architectural heritage for the team's expanding portfolio.

