RUPERT EMBLETON-SMITH

PROPERTY MANAGER

This month, Lornham is excited to welcome Rupert Embleton-Smith to our expanding block management team as a Property Manager.

Rupert began his career as an agent in the Home Counties before moving on to London Real Estate Advisors, where he gained valuable experience in the diverse realms of real estate and private client culture.

Recently, Rupert has focused on Property Management, bringing a relationship-centric approach to his work along with a sharp attention to detail.

Outside of property management, Rupert has a deep passion for music. He composes in his free time, with his work featured worldwide on platforms such as BBC and ITV.
